2. I want to restate [REDACTED] current problem regarding the timing of the requested appearance before the judge and of the White House briefing which he is scheduled to give the Staff, including General Persons and General Goodpaster. The White House briefing begins at 8:30 a.m. on 2 December and will probably last at least a full hour. His appearance before the judge is requested for 9 a.m. I sincerely hope that he either not need to appear before the judge or an adjustment of time can be arranged. If appearance before the judge at 9 a.m. is unavoidable, we should be informed at the earliest possible time.
